* UNDER OFFER ****

The inimitable landscape of Sawyers Valley holds the story of this home, creating an immediate sense of connection. A carriage driveway sweeps gracefully beneath the protective canopy of a venerable eucalypt  a natural sentinel that has witnessed countless seasons and now stands as guardian to this impressive property.

At the core of the home's design, a north-facing open-plan living zone captures the essence of contemporary country living. Extensive glazing dissolves the boundary between interior and exterior, inviting natural light to cascade across a lateral living space. The gable-covered alfresco area becomes an extension of the living zone, a seamless transition that embodies relaxed Australian design. Here, the kitchen is a focal point  ingeniously incorporating the original laundry space in a transformational ode to efficiency.

Beyond the open-plan living areas, a carpeted lounge offers a counterpoint of formal elegance. This space provides a sanctuary for more intimate gatherings, a room that speaks to traditional notions of hospitality while remaining firmly anchored in contemporary sensibilities. Walled and raised garden beds, space for an outdoor kitchen, various garden sheds and a workshop fill life's canvas with passions, family and friends. This is a home for making memories and telling stories of place, of connection, and of a uniquely Perth Hills lifestyle, jclover@fngenesisis.com.au

Working within his father's real estate agency since the age of 16, Jonathan has done most roles within a real estate office including pushing a mop and broom around, analyzing marketing and property trends, managing client engagement...

"My dad owns a real estate office in Canada, my grandfather started what became the largest agency on Vancouver Island at the time, my uncle runs one of the largest commercial real estate agencies in British Columbia... it's a genetic disorder in our family" Jonathan remarks.

"A lot of people ask me why I am in real estate?" Jonathan says the answer is simple, "Aside from my faith and family there are 3 things that get me up in the morning. I love meeting and helping people, I value our shared community, and I am passionate about property. This is the perfect industry for me!"

The last decade has seen Jonathan progress from a business consultant within the real estate and business broking industry to the WA /NT State Manager of First National Real Estate, Australia's largest group of independent real estate agents. He is now the Director and Sales Coach of his very own First National Real Estate Office.
